

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

MIGORI COUNTY

2024/25 COUNTY FISCAL STRATEGY PAPER

February, 2024

FOREWORD

The 2024 County Fiscal Strategy Paper (CFSP), is the second to be prepared under the current Administration, reaffirms the priority policies and strategies in the Governor’s Manifesto and prioritized in the County Integrated Development Plan (2023-2027).

The Paper is prepared in accordance with Section 117 of the Public Finance Management Act 2012. The priorities and goals outlined are based on the 2024 Budget Policy Statement (BPS) recommendation as anchored in the Kenya Vision 2030, Kenya’s development blueprint. Preparation of this Paper has been done in collaboration with the public and various stakeholders and therefore reflects the needs of the people of Migori County. The fiscal framework presented in the Paper for the medium term will guide the county government in ensuring that there will be efficiency and effectiveness in the implementation of the development policies.

The document sets the sectoral ceilings and takes cognizance of the fact that it is only by addressing various challenges that the county will move towards achieving its full potential. Therefore, the CFSP is critical in positioning the county’s social and economic growth strategy and also by building on the past successes that the county will establish a strong basis for social and economic transformation. The county has made remarkable progress towards enhancing food security, empowering the youth and SMEs, infrastructural development, universal health coverage, increasing access to clean and safe water, increasing access to quality basic education and education support for bright and needy students.

Some of the key projects proposed in this Paper include upgrading of dispensaries to health centers, construction of a model VETC, construction of water and sewerage system, distribution of agricultural material and animals to farmers and improvement of the road network across the county.

To deliver the envisaged results, all accounting officers are encouraged to strengthen their service delivery mechanisms to ensure a responsive service delivery to the needs of the citizens of Migori. In addition, departments and entities are expected to embrace automation for efficiency in service delivery.

Given the limited resources, the hard sector ceilings provided for the FY 2024/25 Budget and the Medium Term will form the basis of the detailed budget allocations for submission to County Assembly by 30th April 2024.

Regular barazas will be held to disseminate government policies and supervise employees at the devolved levels of government. Other priorities include; develop and review core human resource management plans and policies, automation of staff appraisal process and enhancing the welfare of staff

14. Monitoring And Evaluation

44. In the 2022-23 fiscal year, the department completed the drafting of the County Monitoring & Evaluation policy, which is now awaiting public participation before submission to the county assembly for approval. They also sensitized senior employees on monitoring and evaluation reporting and Performance Contract signing requirements. Departmental Monitoring & Evaluation Focal persons were appointed and departments were advised to form their own monitoring and evaluation committees. They prepared a quarter 1 performance report from all departments.

45. For the 2024/2025 fiscal year, the sector plans to implement the following key activities; preparation and dissemination of various M&E reports, sensitization of Monitoring and Evaluation Committees and finally develop County Indicators Handbook.

15. Roads, Transport, Public Works and Infrastructure Development

46. The department is mandated to construct, maintain, and manage county road networks and provides services to other departments. In the first half of FY 2023/24, the department commenced procurement of community roads projects, major structures, major roads, storm water drainage works at Sori, and prefabs to relocate the headquarter offices.
47. In the FY 2024/2025, the department has prioritised to construct bridges/box culverts, open and improve roads, improve transport facilities, construct footbridges, promote road safety procedures, purchase construction equipment and trucks, address functional storm water drainage, respond to disasters, and provide related services to the public. The directorate of public works and Infrastructural development will undertake designing and supervision of electrical and mechanical services for building works, maintain records of all registered contractors in the county, and prepare bills of quantities for the tendering process.

16. Trade, Industrialization Market and Cooperative Development

48. In FY 2022/2023, the department completed various construction projects, launched a direct flight between Migori and Nairobi, registered new co-operative societies, and developed documentation for a County aggregated Industrial Park. ### 17. Water And Energy

50. In FY 2022-2023, the Department of Water and Energy gazetted the Migori County Water and Sanitation Act, 2022, and began preparing the Migori Water and Sanitation regulations, 2023. They supported urban water schemes, drilled and equipped boreholes, rehabilitated community water projects, and constructed spring protection works. They also installed commercial solar floodlights and grid-powered floodlights. Furthermore, the department intends to install new integrated solar streetlights and floodlights, maintain and repair solar streetlights and floodlights.

CHAPTER TWO: RECENT ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENTS AND MEDIUM-TERM OUTLOOK.

Global and Regional Economic Developments

52. The global economy is experiencing challenges arising from global supply chain disruptions due to the prolonged Russia -Ukraine conflict, lingering effects of COVID-19 pandemic, elevated global interest rates on account of inflationary pressures limiting access to credit and exacerbating debt servicing costs; and significant losses and damages due to frequent extreme weather events increasing fiscal pressures. As such, global growth is projected to slow down to 3.0 percent in 2023 and 2.9 percent in 2024 from 3.5 percent in 2022 which is below the historical (2000–2019) average of 3.8 percent. The geopolitical fragmentation arising from the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and elevated global oil prices on account of supply cuts by major oil exporters particularly Saudi Arabia and Russia could weigh on the global economic outlook.

Table 1: Global Economic Performance

53. Advanced economies are projected to record a slower growth of 1.5 percent in 2023 and 1.4 percent in 2024 from 2.6 percent in 2022 mainly driven by lower growth in the Euro Area. The slowdown in growth in the advanced economies is as a result of aggressive monetary policy tightening that has contributed to a significant deterioration of global financial conditions.

54. Growth in the emerging market and developing economies is projected to decline relatively modestly, from 4.1 percent in 2022 to 4.0 percent in both 2023 and 2024, although with notable shifts across regions. In sub-Saharan Africa, growth is projected to decline to 3.3 percent in 2023 from 4.0 percent in 2022 reflecting worsening climate change related shocks, inflationary and exchange rate pressures, and domestic supply issues, including, notably, in the electricity sector.

55. Growth in the region is expected to rebound to 4.0 percent in 2024, picking up in four fifths of the sub-Saharan Africa's countries, and with strong performances in non-resource intensive countries.

National Economic Developments and fiscal performance.

56. The Economic Survey Report, 2023 by Kenya National Bureau of Statistics (KNBS) estimated a real domestic positive growth of 7.7 percent in 2022 as compared to a contraction of 0.3 percent in 2021 owing to improved performance in key sectors of the economy including; Manufacturing (6.9%), Wholesale and Retail Trade (7.9%), Real Estate (6.7%), Transportation and storage (7.2%), and Financial and insurance activities (12.5%). On the other hand, economic performance in Agriculture, Forestry and Fishing activities contracted by 0.2% in the review period. Activities which were affected more severely by the pandemic in 2020 such as Education, Accommodation and Food Service grew faster than those that were less severely affected.
57. The Kenyan economy continued to expand in 2023, though at a slower pace than the 7.7 percent recorded in 2022. Real GDP is expected to grow by 5.5 percent in 2023 supported by the services sector despite subdued performance in agriculture and weaker global growth.
58. The coordination between monetary and fiscal policies continued to support macroeconomic stability with interest rates remaining relatively stable. Year-on-year overall inflation rate declined for the second consecutive month in December 2022. Inflation rate eased to 9.1 percent in December 2022 from 9.5 percent in November 2022 due to a decline in food prices with the favourable rains and declining international prices of edible oils. However, this inflation rate was higher than the 5.7 percent recorded in December 2021.

Domestic Economic Developments

59. The Kenyan economy in 2022 demonstrated resilience in the face of severe multiple shocks that included the adverse impact of climate change, lingering effects of COVID-19, global supply chain disruption and the impact of Russia-Ukraine conflict. As such, the economic growth slowed down to 4.8 percent in 2022 from 7.6 percent in 2021 but broadly aligned with the pre-pandemic decade average of 5.0 percent (Table 2.2). This growth was largely supported by the robust growth of service sectors, particularly transport and storage, financial and insurance, information and communication, and accommodation and food services sectors. However, the agriculture sector contracted by 1.6 percent due to the adverse weather conditions that affected reduction of crops and livestock.
60. The economy is expected to grow by 5.8 percent in 2024 and recover in 2025 to 6.1 percent and maintain that momentum over the medium-term. This growth will be supported by a broad-based private sector growth, including recoveries in agriculture while the public sector consolidates. From an expenditure perspective, private consumption is expected to support aggregate demand, supported by the ongoing labour market recovery, improved consumer confidence, and resilient remittances.

Real GDP	7.6	4.8	6.2	5.2	5.5	5.4

61. Despite the challenging environment, the Kenyan economy is demonstrating resilience with growth performance well above the global and SSA average. In the first half of 2023, the economic growth averaged 5.4 percent (5.5 percent Q1 and 5.4 percent Q2). This growth was primarily underpinned by a rebound in the agricultural activities and a continued resilience of service sectors. All economic sectors recorded positive growths in the first half of 2023, though the magnitudes varied across activities.

62. Agriculture: In the first half of 2023, the agriculture sector rebounded strongly following improved weather conditions and the impact of fertilizer and seed subsidies provided to farmers by the Government. The sector grew by 6.0 percent in the first quarter and 7.7 percent in the second quarter. The strong performance was reflected in enhanced production, especially of food crops that led to significant increase in exports of tea, coffee, vegetables and fruits. However, production of cut flowers and sugarcane declined during the period.

63. Services: The services sector continued to sustain strong growth momentum in the first half of 2023 growing by 6.0 percent in the first quarter and 5.9 percent in the second quarter. The robust performance was reflected in the notable growth of information and communication (driven by increases in wireless internet and fiber-to-home subscriptions), wholesale and retail trade, accommodation and food services (driven by recovery in tourism), transport and storage, financial and insurance (due to strong private sector credit growth and lending to the government) and real estate (supported by sustained expansion of the construction industry).
64. Industry: In the first half of 2023, the industrial sector recorded lower growths of 2.5 percent in the first quarter and 1.8 percent in the second quarter compared to growths of 4.4 percent and 4.2 percent, respectively in similar quarters in 2022. The slowdown in growth was mainly reflected in manufacturing, and electricity and water supply sub-sectors. Activities in the manufacturing sector, which accounts for nearly half of the industrial sector output, was hampered by a decline in the manufacture of both food (particularly sugar production) and non- food products while electricity sub-sector slowed down due to a notable decrease in electricity generation from all sources, except geothermal.

Inflation outcomes

65. Inflation had remained above the Government target range of  $5\pm 2.5$  percent from June 2022 to June 2023. In order to anchor inflation expectations, the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) gradually raised the policy rate (Central Bank Rate (CBR)) from 7.50 percent in May 2022 to 10.50 percent in June 2023 and further to 12.50 percent in December 2023. The tightening of the monetary policy was to address the pressures on the exchange rate and mitigate second round effects including from global prices. This will ensure that inflationary expectations remain anchored, while setting inflation on a firm downward path towards the 5.0 percent mid-point of the target range. Consequently, inflation eased gradually to 6.8 percent in November 2023 from a peak of 9.6 percent in October 2022 and has been within the target range for the five months of FY 2023/24. However, inflation has remained sticky in the upper bound of the Government's target range since July 2023. The easing of inflation was also supported by lower food prices. Food inflation remained the dominant driver of overall inflation in November 2023. However, it declined to 7.6 percent in November 2023 from a peak of 15.8 percent in October 2022 supported by general decline in international food prices, government interventions through zero rating of select food commodities, and improved weather conditions that enhanced production of fast-growing food items, thus moderating their prices. Nonetheless, sugar prices remained elevated driven by domestic and global factors.
66. Fuel inflation remained elevated reflecting the impact of the rise in international oil prices. It increased to 15.5 percent in November 2023 from 11.7 percent in November 2022. The increase reflects the impact of higher international oil prices, depreciation in the shilling exchange rate and gradual withdraw of the fuel subsidize from September 2022 and the upward adjustment of electricity tariff from April 2023. In addition, the upward adjustment of VAT on petroleum product in July 2023 from 8.0 percent to 16.0 percent to eliminate tax credits from the sector exacted upward pressures on prices. However, prices of cooking gas continued to decline and moderated inflation reflecting the impact of the zero-rating of VAT on liquefied petroleum gas (LPG).

Inflation Rate, Percent

67. Net Domestic Assets (NDA) registered a growth of 10.9 percent in the year to September 2023, compared to a growth of 17.6 percent over a similar period in 2022. The growth in NDA was mainly supported by an increase in domestic credit particularly resilient private sector credit and net lending to government. Growth of domestic credit extended by the banking system to the Government declined to a growth of 16.0 percent in the year to September 2023 compared to a growth of 19.8 percent in the year to September 2022.

Monetary and Credit Developments

68. Broad money supply, M3, grew by 19.5 percent in the year to September 2023 compared to a growth of 6.1 percent in the year to September 2022 (Table 2.3). The primary source of the increase in M3 was an improvement in the Net Foreign Assets (NFA) of the banking system and resilient domestic credit. The increase in NFA mainly reflected the improvement in commercial banks’ foreign assets.

69. Net Domestic Assets (NDA) registered a growth of 10.9 percent in the year to September 2023, compared to a growth of 17.6 percent over a similar period in 2022. The growth in NDA was mainly supported by an increase in domestic credit particularly resilient private sector credit and net lending to government. Growth of domestic credit extended by the banking system to the Government declined to a growth of 16.0 percent in the year to September 2023 compared to a growth of 19.8 percent in the year to September 2022.

Interest Rates Developments

70. Reflecting the tight monetary policy stance and liquidity conditions in the money market, interest rates increased in the year to November 2023. The interbank rate increased to 11.4 percent in November 2023 compared to 4.6 percent in November 2022 while the 91-day Treasury Bills rate increased to 15.4 percent compared to 9.2 percent over the same period. The introduction of the interest rate corridor, in August 2023, is expected to align the interbank rate to the Central Bank Rate and thereby improve the transmission of the monetary policy.

71. Net receipts on the services account declined by USD 928.2 million to USD million in September 2023 compared to a similar period in 2022. This was mainly on account of a decline in receipts from transport despite an increase in receipts from tourism as international travel continues to improve. Net Secondary income remained resilient owing to an increase in remittances which amounted to USD 4,142 million in the 12 months to September 2023, and were 3.5 percent higher compared to a similar period in 2022. The capital account balance improved by USD 12.6 million to register a surplus of USD 144.1 million in September 2023 compared to a surplus of USD 131.5 million in the same period in 2022. Net financial inflows slowed down but remained vibrant at USD 3,144.8 million in September 2023 compared to USD 4,784.7 million in September 2022. The net financial inflows were mainly in the form of other investments, financial derivatives, and direct investments. Portfolio investments registered a net outflow during the period. The overall balance of payments position slowed down to a surplus of USD 1,044.4 million (1.0 percent of GDP) in September 2023 from a surplus of USD 2,225.9 million (2.0 percent of GDP) in September 2022.

Foreign Exchange Reserves

72. The banking system's foreign exchange holdings remained strong at USD 13,968.3 million in September 2023, an improvement from USD 11,337.4 million in September 2022. The official foreign exchange reserves held by the Central Bank stood at USD 7,651.8 million compared to USD 7,787.5 million over the same period. Commercial banks holdings improved to USD 6,316.5 million in September 2023 from USD 3,549.9 million in September 2022. The official reserves held by the Central Bank in September 2023 represented 4.1 months of import cover as compared to the 4.4 months of import cover in September 2022. It, however, fulfilled the requirement to maintain it at a minimum of 4.0 months of imports cover to provide adequate buffer against short-term shocks in the foreign exchange market.

Exchange Rate Developments

73. Kenya like several other countries is experiencing foreign exchange challenges due to the rise of US interest rates. In November 2023, the Kenya Shilling weakened by 24.7 percent against the US Dollar, 31.9 percent against the Sterling Pound and 32.2 percent against the Euro, compared to a similar period in 2022.
74. The Kenya Shilling exchanged at an average of Ksh 152.0 in November 2023 compared to an average of Ksh 121.9 in November 2022. Against the Euro, the Kenya shilling weakened to exchange at Ksh 164.2 in November 2023 compared to Ksh 124.2 in November 2022 while against the Sterling Pound the Kenyan Shilling also weakened to exchange at Ksh 188.6 compared to Ksh 143.0, over the same period (Figure 2.6). The Kenyan Shilling was supported by increased remittances, adequate foreign exchange reserves and strong exports receipts.
75. The Government has taken measures to stabilize the foreign exchange market which include the Government-to-Government petroleum supply arrangement. This arrangement is mainly intended to address the US Dollar (USD) liquidity challenges and exchange rate volatility caused by the global dollar shortage and spot market reactions that was driving volatility and a false depreciation that was a scarcity value as well as market distortion

Capital Markets Developments

76. Activity in the capital markets slowed down in November 2023 compared to November 2022 as advanced economies tightened their monetary policy amid inflationary pressures. Budget execution during the first four months of FY 2023/24 progressed relatively well with revenues recording a growth of 13.0 percent in October 2023 compared to a growth of 11.9 percent in October 2022. Total revenue recorded a shortfall of Ksh 47.6 billion with ordinary revenue missing the October 2023 target by Ksh 59.1 billion and Ministerial Appropriation in Aid (AiA) recording a surplus of Ksh 11.5 billion. Revenue performance is anticipated to improve over the course of the fiscal year, mainly supported by the improved revenue administration by the Kenya Revenue Authority.

County Economic Development

79. Migori County operates within the global and national economic framework. The global and national economic dynamics impact both directly and indirectly on county fiscal decisions and operations. Economic growth is a parameter that influences national government transfer to counties. Therefore, the higher the GDP growth, the more allocation is expected in the county.

80. In 2020 the county's contribution to the national GDP was estimated at 1.2% with a recorded annual growth rate of 3.8%. The county's share of GDP has remained more or less the same since 2013-2020 (Gross County Product, 2021, KNBS). The effects of COVID-19 pandemic, the ongoing Russia-Ukraine conflict, prolonged drought and elevated inflation has slowed the county economy leading to a depressed overall economic performance.

County Outlook for 2023/2024 FY

81. As already articulated in the 2023 County Fiscal Strategy Paper and Annual Development Plan 2023/24, the county shall give prominence to the following priorities with the view of improving the economy of the county:

- (i) Completion of the ongoing projects from the previous financial years in order to ensure value for money and the community gets the expected benefits from the projects in their areas.
- (ii) Investing in infrastructure expansion through construction and opening of access roads, bridges and improvement of major county roads including upgrading to bitumen standard in rural and urban market centres
- (iii) Investing in food security related interventions through increasing agricultural productivity and; promoting market access; promoting credit and input uptake and entrepreneurial culture; promoting sustainable land use and environmental conservation; enhancing institutional efficiency and effectiveness; increasing livestock production and productivity; enhancing livestock extension delivery services; creating an enabling environment for county specific capture and farm fish development and enhance fisheries extension delivery services.
- (iv) Socio-economic transformation to focus on improvement of the health care systems and structures through provision of drugs, operationalization of universal health care (UHC) and refurbishment of health facilities. Further measures including upgrading of key health facilities and modernization of level four hospital shall be explored.

Risks to the Economic Outlook.

82. There are down side risks to this macroeconomic outlook emanating from domestic sources which include;

- Risks emanating from climate change resulting in unfavourable weather conditions. This could affect agricultural production and result to domestic inflationary pressures.
- Lower agricultural output due to potential adverse weather conditions, which could potentially reduce production of food crops and animal feeds.
- Increased public expenditure pressures, particularly wage and other recurrent expenditures would put a strain to the fiscal space.
- Own source shortfalls and delayed exchequer releases resulting into low liquidity consequently undermining implementation of county projects.
- Technology failure particularly in IFMIS resulting to delayed transactions in the system.

- The global economic recovery from the recession caused by responses to the COVID-19 pandemic continues but is slowing. After a contraction of 3.1% in 2020, global economic growth is expected to reach 5.9% in 2021 and slow to 4.9% in 2022. By 2024, the global economy is projected to be 2.3% smaller than it would have been without the pandemic. Risks to economic growth are considerable, including risks from a potential resurgence of COVID19 as new variants emerge. Previously, the Global Risk Partners (GRPS) identified “commodity shocks”, “price instability” and “debt crises” as critical medium-term concerns.
83. On the external front, uncertainties in the global economic outlook stemming from the current geopolitical tension in Russia-Ukraine and the middle east could result in higher commodity prices and slowdown the global economic recovery which could impact on the domestic economy.
  84. The Kenyan Government continues to monitor the domestic and external environment and will take appropriate policy measures to safeguard the economy against the adverse effects of the risks if they were to materialize.

CHAPTER THREE: REVIEW OF THE FISCAL PERFORMANCE AND EMERGING CHALLENGES FOR THE 1ST HALF OF FY 2023/2024.

3.1 FISCAL PERFORMANCE FOR THE 1ST HALF OF FY 2023/2024

85. The county received an equitable share of Kshs 3,338,354,955.90 out of the expected Kshs 4,665,928,401 representing 71.54% of the expected receipt for the approved revised budget. However, delays in disbursement of funds by the exchequer for the months of November and December 2023 accounted for the reasons of the unmet target.

A close analysis of the revenue performance reveals overperformance in the following streams during the period under review; Professional Income (707%), Tobacco (178%), Physical Planning (157.6%), motorbikes (131%), Entry/exit fees (117%), market dues (115%), kiosk fees (120%), cattle auction (116%), medical department (121%). Going forward, appropriate measures shall be instituted to apportion revenue streams rightful targets commensurate to their potential with the view of maximizing returns.
90. Markable underperformance was recorded in Single Business Permits (10.4%) and Market Fees and Land Rates (4.9%). The underperformance particularly in the SBP was occasioned by the fact that the reporting period was outside the months usually earmarked for SBP collection (SBP collection falls in the months of January-March)

92. Recurrent expenditure accounted for Ksh 2,994,393,944 representing 85.03% of the total revenue received during the period under review. This expenditure consisted of Kshs 1.538B for Compensation of employees (85.74%) and Kshs 1.456 (78.08%) for operations and maintenance translating to an absorption rate of 81.84%.
93. Overall absorption rate averaged at 40.92 per cent of the approved revised budget. However, few departments recorded absorption rate of over 50 per cent due to the payment of pending bills and compensation for employees. They include Agriculture, Livestock, Veterinary Services, Fisheries and Blue Economy, Medical Services and Public Service Management and Devolution.

94. Development expenditure accounted for Ksh 527,262,65 representing 14.9 percent of the total revenue received during the reporting period and an absorption rate of 12.15 per cent. The low rate was attributed to the delayed disbursement from the exchequer and late commencement of the procurement process

CHAPTER FIVE: BUDGET FOR THE FY 2024/2025 AND THE MEDIUM TERM

5.1. RESOURCE ALLOCATION FRAMEWORK

3.1 Overview

95. The fiscal framework for the FY 2024/25 Budget and medium term is based on the Government's policy priorities as set out in the FY 2024-25 ADP and the 2022-2027 CIDP. In order to sustain the development agenda, the County Government will continue with the fiscal consolidation plan by containing expenditures and enhancing mobilization of revenues to reduce pending bills without compromising service delivery.

5.2 Revenue Projections

96. During the period under review the county expects to receive equitable share amounting to 8.34145B as per the estimates contained in the 2024 Budget Policy Statement. Equally a total of Kshs. 480M and Kshs. 140M are expected to be raised as OSR and A.I.A respectively.

3.2.6 Conditional Share from the National Government

98. This category will account for 5.1 percent of the total projected County revenue. It comprises allocation for industrial park, money for court fines, mineral royalties and lease of medical equipment. Lease of medical equipment money is normally deducted at source to pay for the medical equipment bought by the National Government on behalf of the counties. Table 9 presents the summary of conditional share from the National Government.

Expenditure Projection

100. The total expenditure in 2024/25 is poised to decrease by 2 percent from KShs.10,036 billion in FY 2023/24 to KShs 10.21 billion in FY 2024/25. The decline is due to decrease in the projected donor funds and conditional share from the National Government. The expenditure in the forward budget is expected to be within the principle of 70:30 fiscal responsibility of recurrent to development respectively.

3.4 FY 2024/25 and Medium-Term Priorities

101. The Government is committed to implementing priority programmes under the County Integrated Development Plan (CIDP) 2022-2027 to achieve the mission and vision of the people of Migori while optimizing the use of Own Source Revenue (OSR) and other resources during the period. The Government will in this regard develop a framework for better quality services based on strong links between resources, budgeting, monitoring, and clear expectations for delivering planned outcomes.

102. These priorities notwithstanding, the Government will strive to ensure that public spending leads to high-quality outcomes within a sustainable and affordable framework. In this regard, spending will be directed towards the most critical needs of the county with the aim of achieving quality outputs and outcomes with existing or lower levels of resources. Further, the County Government will ensure departments' requests for resources are realistic and consider the resource constraints, considering the fiscal consolidation policy.

3.5 Budgetary Allocations for the FY 2024/25 and the Medium Term

103. The county Revenue will be shared among the two arms of the County Government namely the Executive and County Assembly. Allocations to the County Assembly and the Governor's offices are guided by the ceilings from the CRA.

104. The baseline estimates reflect the current departments spending levels in sector programmes. In the recurrent expenditure category, non-discretionary expenditures take first charge. These include salaries and pensions.
