Executive summary

The third Kilifi County Annual Development Plan (CADP) for the FY 2016/17 was prepared by the Department of Finance and Economic Planning in close collaboration with members of the various Sector Working Groups (SWGs). The office of the County Executive Member for Finance and Economic Planning provided the overall oversight and guidance. It has been prepared in the backdrop of the Kenya Vision 2030, the Second Medium Term Plan 2013-2017 and in line with the Kilifi County Integrated Development Plan (CIDP 2013-2017)

The CADP articulates short term strategies, programmes and projects to be implemented under the Medium Term Expenditure Framework (MTEF).

The Plan is divided into four chapters as follows:

- Chapter One: Provides a brief background description of the County in terms of its area, administrative divisions, main physical features, settlement patterns and demography which includes population projections
- Chapter two: It outlines situational analysis of various departments/sectors giving key challenges/ emerging issues. It also gives SWOT analysis of the same.
- Chapter three: It indicates priorities, strategies, programmes and projects proposed FY 2016/17 on a 3 year rolling cycle
- Chapter four: It gives out implementation matrices of various projects and programmes as outlined in chapter three.

To realize the envisaged benefits from the Plan, critical leadership from the political front will be a key ingredient to inculcate ownership and responsibility toward the actual implementation of planned programmes and projects as well as the general collective will for participation by the citizenry.

CHAPTER ONE: COUNTY BACKGROUND

Introduction

This chapter gives the background information that has a bearing on the development of the county. The chapter provides description of the county in terms of the location, size, physiographic and natural conditions, demographic profiles as well as the administrative and political units.

The annual development plan provides a mechanism for linking county planning with the Medium Term Expenditure Framework (MTEF) budgetary system as per the requirement of County Government Act.

Position and Size

Kilifi County is one of the six counties in coast region. The county lies between latitude 2° 20' and 4° 0'South, and between longitude 39° 05' and 40° 14' East. It borders Kwale County to the south west, Taita Taveta County to the west, Tana River County to the north, Mombasa County to the south and Indian Ocean to the east. The county covers an area of 12,609.7 km².

Physiographic and Natural Conditions

This section provides a brief on the major physiographic and topographic features of the county. It also covers the ecological and climatic conditions and their influence on the settlement patterns and economic life of the county people.

Physical and Topographic Features

The county has four major topographical features. The first one is the narrow belt, which forms the coastal plain and varies in width of 3km to 20km. The coastal plain lies below 30m above sea level with a few prominent peaks on the western boundary including hills such as Mwembetungu. Across this plain run several creeks resulting in excellent marine swamps that are endowed with mangrove forests and present potential for marine culture. This zone is composed of marine sediments, including coral, limestone, marble, clay stones and alluvial deposits that support agriculture. To the west of the coastal plain lies the foot plateau characterized by slightly undulating terrain. The plateau falls between 60m and 150m altitude and slopes towards the sea.

Ecological Conditions

The county can be divided into five Agro- Ecological Zones (AEZ), which define areas that have similar characteristics such as annual mean temperatures, vegetation and humidity.

These zones include the following;

Coconut-Cassava Zone: This zone has the highest potential for crop production in the county spreading along the coastal uplands and low-level coastal plains. Major farming activities include tree cropping (mango, citrus, cashew nuts, and coconuts), vegetables (chilli, brinjals, okra etc.), food crops (maize, bananas, cowpeas, green grams etc.) and upland rice. Dairy farming also does well in this zone. It has an average precipitation of 1,300mm per annum and mean annual temperature of 24 °C.

Cashew nut - Cassava Zone: This zone stretches northwards along the coastal plain up to Sokoke Forest. It has an average precipitation of 900mm and mean annual temperature of 24⁰ C. It has agricultural potential with the same crop types as in Coconut-Cassava zone, but with less production.

Livestock-Millet Zone: The zone is of lower agriculture potential with precipitation of 700 – 900mm. The area is suitable for dry land farming especially drought tolerant crops and livestock ranching.

Lowland Ranching: It varies in altitude of 90-300m with mean annual temperature of 27⁰ C and annual precipitation of 350-700mm. Major activities within this zone include ranching and wildlife.

Coconut Cashew nut-Cassava Zone: This zone is mainly found in Kilifi South and North Constituencies and is the smallest of all the zones. It varies in altitude from 30-310m above sea level with mean temperature of 27⁰ C and annual precipitation of 900mm per annum.

Climatic Conditions

The average annual rainfall ranges from 300mm in the hinterland to 1,300mm at the coastal belt. The coastal belt receives an average annual rainfall of about 900mm to 1,100mm with marked decrease in intensity to the hinterland. Areas with highest rainfall include Mtwapa and to the north of the coastal strip around the Arabuko Sokoke Forest. Evaporation ranges from 1800mm along the coastal strip to 2200mm in the Nyika plateau in the interior. The highest evaporation rate is experienced during the months of January to March in all parts of the county.

The annual temperatures in the county range between 21 °C and 30°C in the coastal belt and between 30°C and 34°C in the hinterland. The county experiences relatively low wind speeds ranging between 4.8 km/hr and 12 Km/hr.

Administrative and Political Units

The county has seven sub counties namely, Kilifi North, Kilifi South, Ganze, Malindi, Magarini, Rabai and Kaloleni. It has 17 divisions, 54 locations, 175 sub-locations as shown in Table 6. Magarini Sub-county is the largest while Rabai is the smallest in terms of area in Km²

Males represent 47.5 percent while females represent 52.5 percent of the total population indicating a male: female ratio of 1:1.07. From the table above it is observed that for most age cohort's female population is more than that of males except for those below age fourteen and above 85 years. The county's dependency ratio stands at 101.45 percent.

CHAPTER TWO: SITUATION ANALYSIS

2.0 SITUATION ANALYSIS OF SECTORS

2.1: AGRICULTURE, LIVESTOCK AND FISHERIES DEVELOPMENT

Agricultural sector holds some of the main and major economic activities in Kilifi County. The sector consists of three sub sectors in the areas of agriculture, livestock development and fisheries development. The County Agriculture production is dominated by both food and cash crops at both subsistence and commercial levels. Livestock keeping is another major economic activity thriving in the county due to availability of extensive rangelands and favourable weather conditions. There is a wide variety of both large and small stock including poultry and bee keeping. Fisheries is a major economic activity in the county with commercial and subsistence marine capture fisheries along 300km coastline and in the 200nm EEZ resource base.

There are both perennial and seasonal cash crops grown within the county at both commercial and subsistence levels. They include cashew nuts, coconut, castor, Mangoes, Pineapples, Paw paws, Bananas, Oranges, tangerine ground nuts, peppers, Passion fruits and watermelons. The crops support community but providing incomes and employment opportunities. However, cash crop production in the county faces challenges of low yields, lack of processing plant for value addition, harsh weather conditions such as persistence droughts and low pricing of agricultural products. Farming of food crops is mainly under subsistence farming that is mainly rain dependent. The major food crops grown in the county are maize, wheat, millet, sorghum, cassava and beans. Other major challenge facing food crop production is low yields, low adoption of new farming techniques, limited credit line facilitation, low use of appropriate farm inputs and inadequate extension services .

Kilifi county boasts of a wide variety of livestock reared in the county. The county holds a good potential in livestock production due to the available large tracts of land suitable for ranching and favourable weather pattern for livestock keeping. Livestock keeping support the livelihood of a significant number of the county population. The production potential is however not being realised due to variety of challenges. There is widespread use of low yielding animals while adoption of improved animal breeds has not been significant. The extensive ranches in the county suffer from poor management while animal diseases management at the community level is weak. This coupled with low use of appropriate inputs due to the unaffordability and minimal adoption of value addition ventures have resulted to low incomes. Much effort is also required to adopt and strengthen the livestock and livestock products marketing systems.

The County has a huge potential in both marine capture fisheries and aquaculture in freshwater and mariculture. This potential is both in terms of the extent of available water resources and in the variety of marine products available. The industry directly and indirectly support large number of people such as fishermen, fish traders and traders in fishing related goods and services. The industry is however suffers under exploited mainly due to low fishing capacity by the local fishermen. Most fishing activities takes place within the 5 nm stretch along the shoreline leading to overfishing. The industry further suffers from undeveloped supportive infrastructure, low value addition and processing and weak marketing structures. capture fisheries community management and governance structures are weak resulting to illegal unregulated and unreported fishing. Aquaculture both at fresh water and mariculture requires further investment before its potential is realised.

The County Department Agricultural, Livestock and Fisheries Development has had and continue to develop and implement appropriate programmes to address the challenges facing the industry and enhance the exploitation of the existing potential.

2.1.2 Key Achievements 2014/2015

The Department in implementation of the various programmes and projects realised some achievements major among them:

2.2 EDUCATION, YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS

The department is committed towards the achievement of quality early childhood education, stable and sustainable Youth population and hihegr standards of sports activities. In addition,, the department is bounded to achieve international development commitments such as the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs).

The county has 799 public and 830 private ECD Centres with a total of 1718 Teachers in public ECD centres, 492 primary schools and 120 secondary schools as well as 277 adult literacy centres. The county will need to emphasize a lot on advocacy on the importance of ECD education so as to increase the Gross enrolment rate from 59 percent.

In primary schools, the Teacher/Pupil ratio is 1:59 which is higher than the recommended 1:40. The Gross enrolment rate is 95.8 percent with boys being more than girls in the primary schools. The completion rate is 83.7 percent but the transition rate is only 45 percent thus implying that there are a high number of pupils who complete primary school but do not proceed to secondary school. The proportion of the population that is 5 km or more from the nearest primary school is 65.1 percent and thus there is need to invest in more primary schools.

The literacy level of the population aged 15 and above remains low. Those with ability to read and write stands at 65.5 percent while 34.5 percent cannot. The adult literacy level in the county is 65.3 per cent.

The gross enrolment rate in secondary school in the county is very low at 42.5 percent while the net enrolment rate is 34 percent with differentials being reflected with boys having a higher enrolment rate than girls. There is need to emphasize on the girl child education as well as put up more secondary schools especially because 72.4 percent of the community have to travel 5 km or more to access the nearest public secondary school.

The county has nine private accredited colleges; one middle level college (KMTC Kilifi) and 13 youth polytechnics. These institutions offer youth a chance to further their skills to make them competitive in the labour market. There are also four universities offering various courses.

2.6.3 Emerging Issues and Challenges

Procurement need be further devolved to the departmental level. The lead time is too long.

These are challenges caused by centralization of procurement

Need to decentralise financial management. The Chief Officers need be empowered to manage finances at the departmental level while the county treasury oversees the financial operations in the County and gives technical advice.

There is an increase in diabetic cases and there is need to focus and plan on the strategies to address the same.

Community strategy empowers community to take care of their health needs. There is need to embrace this strategy and to focus on preventive health services.

Access to health services is still a challenge in some of the parts of our County and in some cases the patients have to travel for long distances as they seek for health services.

However, the County government of Kilifi is committed to ensure there will be health facility in every county ward. One realising this, next strategy will be to ensure there will be a health facility after every 5 Kilometres as per the WHO standards.

Volume of water=132,257 m³

- Rehabilitation

1.5 km pipeline

No. of beneficiaries = 1 primary school, 2,000 people

Volume of water = 2543.4 m³

2.7.3 Emerging Issues and Challenges

The main challenges facing the water sub-sector revolve around financing and capacity.

Provision of clean, safe, accessible and affordable water and sanitation services for all is hindered by Poor water infrastructure, Low community participation in water management issues, Saline underground water and Prevalence of Disease due to unsafe Water

Most of the underground water in the hinterland is saline and unfit for both livestock and domestic use in areas such as Chonyi, Roka, Mtondia, Ngerenya and some parts of Ganze.

The County Government through the Department of Water Environment, Forestry and Natural Resources, with the support of development partners like the National Drought Management Authority, the Constituency Development Fund and other agencies has invested heavily in construction of water pans in the hinterlands in an effort to alleviate water shortage within the county. The government has also rehabilitated the Baricho and Mzima water supplies to improve access to potable water. All these efforts are geared towards reducing walking distances to water points. The county however needs to embark on the rehabilitation of the existing water schemes to increase their efficiency, including construction of earth dams and pans. The communities will further be encouraged to build shallow wells, sub-surface dams and also undertake roof catchments to harvest rainwater. More water projects and pipelines should be initiated to reduce the distance to the nearest water point.

2.8 LANDS, PHYSICAL PLANNING, HOUSING AND ENERGY

The department faces major internal as well as external challenges in delivery of its mandates. First is the departments' low technical capacity which stands at only 40 per cent. This is compounded by inadequate finances and equipment. There are no clear guidelines yet on management of planning and land control functions. On the other hand the department does not have adequate office space. Land tenure is a major development challenge in the county with more than 60 per cent of the residents lacking title deeds thus the high poverty levels in the county. As much as most urban centres are planned, the plans are poorly executed leading to proliferation of informal settlements. At the same time, the County does not have adequate land for public projects or settlement of the landless.

2.9 FINANCE AND ECONOMIC PLANNING

The department of Finance and Economic Planning is one of twelve departments that constitute the executive arm of Kilifi County Government. It comprises six sections namely Financial Accounting and Reporting, Internal Audit, Budgeting, Supply Chain Management, Revenue and Economic Planning. It is charged with the mandate of mobilizing financial resources, management of County finances and other assets, provision of advisory services on public financial management and overseeing formulation and implementation of County development policy and plans. As an institution of the County Government, the department draws its mandate from the Constitution of Kenya, 2010, the County Government Act 2012, Public Finance Management Act 2012, Transition to Devolved Government Act 2012 and Urban Areas and Cities Act 2011.

Upon this regulatory framework the department has in the last two years developed and facilitated enactment of various legislation to streamline its operations, actualise devolution and improve service delivery. The legislation include Rating Bill 2014, the County Scholarship Act, Valuation for Rating Bill 2014, Finance Bill SBP Schedule, Public participation Bill 2014, Emergency Fund Draft Bill, Tax Waiver Bill, Ward Development Fund Bill and Appropriation Bill 2014. This is in addition to compilation and printing of the first County Integrated Development Plan (CIDP 2013-2017), deepening the use of the Integrated Financial Management Information System (IFMIS), and training of staff on the same. The department has also prepared a five-year strategic plan which, though still a draft, forms the basis for staff performance and appraisal. This has revolutionized financial transactions and related services that constitute the core service delivery mandate of the department.

3.6 Health Services

A healthy population is essential for higher productivity and sustained long term development of a nation. We have achieved notable progress, especially in controlling communicable diseases (tuberculosis, HIV/AIDS and malaria) and attaining marked decrease in child mortality, but other health challenges associated with affluence and accidents are emerging – putting pressure on our health care system. The aim of Kilifi County Government is to enable all Kenyans access to modern and well-equipped health facilities and well trained and motivated health care workers. The county government of Kilifi and other partners, will implement a second generation health care reform strategy involving; recruitment of more health workers, expansion of training facilities, development of systems to support and expand health care services and sanitation at the community level. A program for health care infrastructure upgrade and equipment modernization, especially through leasing, will be implemented. Kilifi County Government will also finalize the development of a health policy and institutional and legal framework for enforcement of health care standards. In addition an efficient, effective and accountable framework for the management of public resources and medical supplies at the facility levels will be put in place

Inter-department conflicts due to different regulations; Inadequate information for management; Insufficient funds for law enforcement; Conflict between sport fishing and artisanal fishing; Improper disposal of wastes; Deforestation and poor agricultural methods.	Harmonization of all regulations and licensing and putting more legislation for proper management; Control forest and mangrove harvesting to ensure sustainability and maintenance of essential ecological functions; Formalize relations with all stakeholders through having consultative meetings and integrated management forums in marine and land based activities; Inadequate boundary demarcation; Development of zoning plans and regulations e.g. skiing zone, fishing zone and so on; Construction and installation of new facilities and infrastructure;

Shortage of funds to develop forests and conduct extension activities; Drought in some parts of the county; Low demand for seedlings; land tenure resulting to low investment on tree planting; Shortage of wood/forest products due to over exploitations; Encroachment of forests.	Look for more government support; Introduce drought resistant tree species; Introduce various income generating activities; Speeding up of land adjudication; Increase protection and create more awareness of agro forestry; Intensify extension service; Establish community nurseries.

Chapter Four: Implementation, Monitoring and Evaluation

4.0 Introduction

This chapter presents the monitoring and evaluation framework that will be used to track progress on implementation of projects and programmes. An indicative matrix detailing projects and programmes, costing, implementing agencies as well as monitoring tools and indicators which could be selected for the County, based on projects and programmes identified in chapter three.

4.1 Institutional Framework for Monitoring and Evaluation in the county

At the National level, Monitoring and Evaluation is conducted through National Integrated Monitoring and Evaluation System (NIMES), whose main aim is to improve the effectiveness and quality of tracking of implementation of various development policies, strategies and programmes. The county and lower level monitoring and evaluation of projects and programmes are part of this system.

It is expected that the county will put in place a County Monitoring and Evaluation system to serve the needs of the County Government, while complementing the National M & E system. The system will take cognizance of the projects and programmes included in this annual development plan as well as indicators facilitating the MTEF process, and development aspects of the county
